

THE RIGHT PATH to Health Insurance

So many paths to choose from in finding the right health insurance... which is right for you?

SINGLE Income	FAMILY Income	Where will you get insurance?
Less than or = $15,521	Less than or = to $31,721	Medicaid or Medicare/ Medicaid Dual Eligible (if > 65)
$17,505	$35,775	Covered by Employer or State Exchange
$23,340	$47,700	Covered by Employer or State Exchange
$29,175	$59,625	Covered by Employer or State Exchange
$35,010	$71,550	Covered by Employer or State Exchange
$46,680	$95,400	Covered by Employer or State Exchange
Over 65 and > than $15,521(Single) and $31,721 (Family)		Medicare

If you make less than $15,521 or your family makes less than $31,721, you will be eligible for Medicaid. If you are 65 or older, you will qualify for Medicare. Otherwise, you will qualify for tax breaks in purchasing health insurance, unless you make over $46,680 as an individual or $95,400 as a family, then you must purchase private insurance.

You must be enrolled by February 15th, 2015... don't wait!
